

Qualifications

A cooperative unit qualifies for the Homeowner Exemption if it was occupied as the principal place of residence by a member of the cooperative on January 1, 2024.

Guidelines

The total number of units and the total number of units occupied by cooperative members must correspond to those units listed under the Permanent Index Number(s) (PIN) of the cooperative.

If the cooperative is identified:

- a. by one PIN, only one application form is required.
- b. by more than one PIN, a separate form for each PIN must be submitted. Each form should show a different PIN, but the same totals for items (1) and (3) below.

Application

The information below must be completed in full by a cooperative association officer/agent who is representing all cooperative members:

Permanent Index Number (PIN)

Address of Cooperative, City or Village, Zip Code

1. Total apartment units in the entire cooperative:

2. Total shares of cooperative:
(Attach an itemized list of shares of each individual unit.)

3. Total of above units occupied as principal residences
(Including senior citizens) on January 1, 2024:

As an officer or duly appointed agent of the above referenced cooperative and representing all its members, I hereby apply for the 2024 Homeowner Exemption. I affirm by my signature that the information given is true and correct. I understand that it is against the law to falsify this application.
